

Fishbowl Launches Fishbowl Hosted Services for Small to Medium Sized Businesses

Affordable Service Hosts Fishbowl Inventory and Includes Microsoft Office Pre-installed

SALT LAKE CITY, Feb. 8, 2011—Fishbowl® (www.FishbowlInventory.com) today launched Fishbowl Hosted Services, a new hosted server service optimized to host Fishbowl Inventory® and includes Microsoft Office pre-installed. The service is designed specifically to host small to medium sized businesses' servers allowing them to stay focused on their core business instead of worrying about time consuming and expensive IT issues.

"Fishbowl Hosted Services is a natural component of our initiative to provide a variety of new business services," said David Williams, Fishbowl CEO. "Available at a competitive price point and based on a simple month-to-month contract, businesses receive all the benefits of a server in their office without the cost and hassles of dealing with technology."

Even if a company can afford skilled IT staff, it is worth considering leaving IT issues to the experts at Fishbowl Hosted Services. The solution eliminates IT concerns and frees up time and energy to focus on the business.

Fishbowl Hosted Services benefits:

- Hosts Fishbowl Inventory and Includes Microsoft Office Pre-Installed. Optimized to host Fishbowl Inventory software. Microsoft Office is pre-installed. Log in and begin using the software. No IT experience is necessary.
